BRANDING FOR GROUPS

Make your people look good, and they'll make your company look good.

Headshots of your public-facing personnel influence the perceived value of your company. It's important to have high-end headshots for everyone who represents your business.

Build trust with a clean, consistent image.

Studio Reem specializes in high-quality headshots that suggest that each person has special contributions to make.

If your people look like a million bucks, that can only mean more and better interactions.

HEADSHOT TERMS

Payment Structure

Full payment is due to book the shoot by credit card, direct deposit, or corporate check.

Mutual Trust

Unless stated and agreed upon in writing, the client and their employees share a limited image license providing them with promotional usage of the images across all company-operated websites and social media platforms and the personal social media of the people photographed.

Project Termination

If you need to reschedule your sessions less than 48 hours in advance, you will pay a $1,000 reschedule fee. If you need to cancel your sessions before any sessions have taken place, you will receive a 50% refund.

Photography Privacy Agreement

We respect the privacy of our clients. If your project requires a photography privacy agreement, please let us know as soon as possible before the sessions.

Final Deliverable

Unless stated and agreed upon in writing, the final deliverable is a 1500-pixel (long edge) jpeg file at 100 dpi within seven days of the final session or of final payment being received if more work is added to the scope of the original booking.

After Sale Services

Your branding is essential, and uniformity across your brand is a key component of that goal. Our corporate clients have access to our new-hire program in the Irvine studio. Please make Studio Reem a part of your onboarding process.
